

GOT SURPLUS food?

FOODRESCUE.CA

Having surplus food is built into your business model. We want to help you avoid throwing away this great food!

The Ontario Donation of Food Act protects businesses that donate food in good faith. FoodRescue.ca makes donating easy by matching your food donations with local social service organizations that feed people. We confirm these charities, non-profit, and school programs have proper food safe handling operations in place and they come directly to you for pickup. Best of all, this service is FREE for you to give back to your community!
